Thank you for submitting your formative.

The assignment intention is focused and appears to be analytical which is positive. Keep the summative itself as focused. For the actual summative ensure you engage in focused research. Make sure you cite regularly in your content and ensure that you have a long list of references to support your discussion.

The below general information is circulated to all students from formative, looking forward to summative:

For the actual summative, ensure that citation is occurring all the way through your content. In-text citation then needs to be reflected in a list of references at the end of the assignment. That list of references needs to be in alphabetical order at the end of the assignment.

For summative ensure that your writing style is wholly formal and academic. Also remember to apply page numbers to your summative document. Ensure that your summative has a critical 'pros and cons' view of discussion, looking at both the positives and negatives of the research that you choose to engage with. It is really important not to just look at one side of research. The content of summative needs to examine different publications and look at different perspectives.

As discussed in live seminars and in student support on the online hub, research for this module is just from secondary research, [and so research that is already in the public domain]. No primary research, [interaction with actual people] is to take place in this module.

Wishing you the best of luck now for your actual summative,

With best wishes

Karen
